Croatian Regatta

It's about fun with friends.

Croatia is one of the best locations to take part in a regatta, because of its climate and unique island formations.

If you would like to take part in a regatta, but the cost and high level of the competition puts you off, Go4sailing has an option that might interest you and help you get started.

Low cost regatta: <http://ayc.at/en/registration-target-sailing-regatta-2016/>

Your knowledge of coastal navigation and meteorology should be to the standard of the RYA Day skipper Shore base course.
